

Southeast Gulf States Tour

$2290 Per Person

10 Days / 9 Nights

Day 1 - Downtown Paducah

We start our trip by heading southeast to Mt. Juliet, TN. On our way, we'll stop in Historic Downtown Paducah where you'll have the choice of visiting the Paducah Railroad Museum or National Quilt Museum. We'll then do a drive by of the unique flood wall murals along the banks of the Ohio River.

Day 2 - Lookout Mountain

This morning we head for Chattanooga, TN to Lookout Mountain where the amazing view includes seven states. After lunch we head to Atlanta, GA where we end our day at the famous Stone Mountain Park. Here you'll see the giant and controversial carving on the face of the mountain cliff.

Day 3 - Georgia Aquarium

This morning we head downtown to the Georgia Aquarium; the second largest in the world, the home of whale sharks, beluga whales, and hundreds of other marine life. At lunch time you can choose to stay and eat at the Aquarium Café or ride over to Ted Turner's Montana Grill. You'll pay for lunch today and we'll buy dinner on day 8. We'll then head to our hotel in Montgomery, AL.

Day 4 & 5 - Pensacola Beach

Today we head south to the Pensacola Lighthouse and Museum. After lunch, we'll visit the Naval Aviation Museum, home to the Blue Angels and over 150 restored aircraft. On day 5 we'll do some interesting things in the morning and you'll have the afternoon to relax on the beach, shop and enjoy the night life. We'll spend both nights at Pensacola Beach.

Day 6 - New Orleans, LA

This morning we will stop by the Biloxi Lighthouse on our way to New Orleans, LA. We'll get a guided tour of New Orleans and sample "beignets" from a local restaurant. This evening you can dine in the French Quarter if you're adventurous. For those that stay up late you can walk on the wild side and stroll down Bourbon Street.

Day 7 - Swamp Boat Ride

Pack your boat shoes! After visiting the WWII Museum in the morning we head to the swamp for a boat ride where we could get an up close look at alligators, eagles and other wildlife. Afterwards, there should be time in the evening to wonder on your own before retiring a second night in New Orleans, LA.

Day 8 - Plantation Home Tour & Dinner

This morning we leave for Natchez, MS where we'll have a southern style dinner at a local Plantation Home. This will be a unique experience that you won't likely forget. "When was the last time you had dinner in a southern Antebellum Home?" After dinner we'll check into our hotel and there may be time to visit the nearby casino.

Day 9 - Memphis, TN

This morning we'll tour another historic plantation before leaving Natchez. We then drive to Memphis, TN and take a walk along historic Beale Street. If you choose, you can have dinner on Beale street where you could hear some local music memories.

Day 10 - Graceland

We'll visit Graceland Mansion and get a look at the life of Elvis! We then head home ending our trip with new friends and great memories.

